

Rabbi Jay Strear
President & CEO, JEWISHcolorado

Rabbi Strear joined JEWISHcolorado as the President & CEO in 2018 after 23 years at American Jewish University in Los Angeles, where he served as special assistant to the president, director of development, chief advancement officer, and senior vice president.

Originally from Colorado, he is a fourth-generation Denver resident. Rabbi Strear received his undergraduate degree from CU-Boulder and earned his MBA with a focus in non-profit management, MA in Rabbinic Literature, and rabbinic ordination from the University of Judaism.

